

Peter Vogt

Bachelor in Business Administration UAS, Certified tax expert Partner

Email

peter.vogt@taxpartner.ch

Area of expertise

- Tax, social security and source tax for corporations and employees nationally and internationally
- Tax advice for private clients working in an international environment
- Tax advice for high net worth individuals and their investment companies

Languages

German, English, French

Profile

Peter Vogt specializes in tax advice for expatriates and their employers as well as national and international private clients, support of corporate clients in areas such as employee participation plans and wage tax. He studied business administration at the Zurich University of Applied Sciences and is a certified Swiss tax expert. Peter joined Tax Partner in 2005 and became a Partner in 2009. Prior to that he worked for the Tax Authorities and for Arthur Andersen's tax consulting department in Zurich.