

Dieter Weber

Senior Counsel

Profile

Dieter Weber studied law at the University of St Gallen followed by his graduation as an attorney and a certified tax expert. He joined Ernst & Young in 1988 and became a Partner in 1995. In 1997 he was one of the founders of Tax Partner. He has a broad experience in national and international corporate and private tax. Dieter is also specialized in estate planning and successions for families and individuals with an international orientation. He serves regularly as a speaker in international tax seminars and has published various articles in national and international tax law publications.

Education

- Master of Law HSG
- Attorney
- Certified tax expert

Languages

German, English, French, Dutch

Area of expertise

- Tax advice for national and international corporations and entrepreneurs
- Transactions
- Estate, succession and pension planning for private individuals
- High net worth individuals and family offices