

Monika Bieri

Partner

Profile

Monika Bieri has more than 15 years of experience in national and international tax law. She started her career as a tax consultant with a Big Four firm and then joined the tax department of an international MNE. In 2016 Monika Bieri joined Tax Partner as Senior Advisor, in 2024 she was promoted to partner. Her main areas of expertise include international corporate tax law with a focus on transfer pricing. Monika Bieri is the author of various publications on Swiss and international tax law and also a regular speaker at professional events.

Education

- MSc in Business Administration
- LL.M. Swiss and International Taxation
- MAS in Accounting and Controlling
- PG Diploma in Transfer Pricing

Area of expertise

- Transfer pricing
- International corporate taxation and reorganizations
- Tax advice for finance companies

Languages

German, English, French