

Sabrina Gamma

Advisor

Profile

Sabrina Gamma studied Accounting and Finance at the University of St. Gallen. After completing her studies, she worked in the Corporate Tax department of a Big Four company. In 2022, she completed her training as certified tax expert. Since then, she has been working at Tax Partner AG and advises companies and private clients in all areas of national and international tax law.

Education

- M.A. HSG in Accounting and Finance
- Certified tax expert

Languages

German, English

Area of expertise

- Tax advice for national and international corporations and entrepreneurs
- Tax advice for private clients