

Maxim Dolder

Partner

Profile

Maxim Dolder has more than 15 years of experience in tax matters, both nationally and internationally. In addition to corporate tax law, Maxim Dolder advises his clients on real estate tax law. He has experience in advising listed and unlisted Swiss and foreign institutional real estate investors and specializes in occupational pension institutions. Maxim Dolder is also a lecturer at selected tax seminars and at a CUREM course at the University of Zurich in the field of portfolio and asset management, as well as the author of various specialist publications.

Education

- Master of Law
- Certified tax expert

Languages

German, English

Area of expertise

- Tax advice for direct and indirect real estate investments of national and international companies and individuals
- Tax advice for national and international companies and entrepreneurs
- M&A and restructuring